

Providing Timely Feedback

"BE A GOOD LISTENER.
ENCOURAGE OTHERS
TO TALK ABOUT THEMSELVES."

-DALE CARNEGIE

- Provide written and verbal feedback regularly
 - This can be as simple as asking:
"How do you think that class period went?"
- Work with your intern on completing the Teaching Internship Weekly Evaluation Form.
- Spend some time together to discuss any areas where they may be need for growth.
 - Find examples on the Coop Teacher Website!
- Review the lessons plans prior to the student teacher giving instruction, so that you can provide feedback.
